

Appeals Procedure

Child Care Restoration Grant Program (CCRG) 2022

Round 5 Appeals covering January – June 2022

All applicants for the Child Care Restoration Grant (CCRG) program have the right to appeal if you have been deemed ineligible to apply for the CCRG and/or the amount awarded to you as part of the CCRG program.

To review the CCRG eligibility criteria and/or the considerations in determining funding, click here: www.ilgateways.com/financial-opportunities/restoration-grants

The Appeals Procedure is made available to the public through the CCRG website hosted by the Illinois Network of Child Care Resource and Referral Agencies (INCCRRA). You can find the link here: www.ilgateways.com/financial-opportunities/restoration-grants

All appeals must be made by Friday, March 18, 2022 in writing to: ccrg@inccrra.org

Appeals must include the following information:

- Completed Appeal Form
- A copy of your DCFS license demonstrating your licensed capacity.
- Documentation to show that program is open and serving children, including number of classrooms.

The decision rendered is final.

Should an applicant be determined eligible for a higher grant amount, his/her grant amount will be approved and paid out upon appeal approval.

The award amount for Round five is based off the capacity of your program from the IDCFS list provided to INCCRRA as of January 1, 2022. Should you have had a capacity change after this date you will not be eligible to receive additional funds due to capacity increase.

Appeals due to missing the deadline to opt-in will not be reviewed. The deadline to opt-in for round five was February 25, 2022.

Appeal due to missing the deadline to submit requested information, will not be reviewed. The deadline to submit all requested documentation is March 11, 2022

Appeals submitted after March 18, 2022 will not be accepted.
