II. Assessment Task Description/ Directions

To address competencies related to Levels 3-5: As early childhood professionals, we must see assessment as essential to supporting children's development and informing the instructional process. In this assessment, students will explore a variety of assessment procedures, screening tools, observation methods and strategies to gain information about children's development and learning within a classroom setting. Students will develop a profile of a learner in the classroom and select appropriate assessments based on the profile developed. Students will analyze assessment instruments for cultural and linguistic responsiveness and explore how appropriate organization and dissemination can inform family engagement and the instructional process.

Results of this project will be kept in an organized manner in an ECE Assessment Project folder that you can add on to and will be assessed throughout the course/clinical experience/ across a program.

(All links valid as of 10/25/19. If not valid, you are encouraged to search the updated site for this tool)

Write a 3-page* paper OR prepare a 10-slide* presentation, OR record a 5-minute* oral presentation OR prepare a poster presentation in which you:

- Explain the purpose/s, features, components, language/s, administration requirements, and psychometric properties (validity, reliability, population) method for recording and scoring results including types of scores. Explain the standard score, percentages, age levels, developmental levels, etc. of each of the 3 instruments/ methods you selected.
- Describe the strengths and challenges in terms of cultural and linguistic responsiveness
- Describe how data generated from the instrument/method can be used to support children's development and learning
- Describe how data generated from the instrument/method can be used to support the instructional process

Part II: Setting/Learner Demographic Profile

In Part II, you will be developing a profile of the classroom you will be observing within and the learner. Your profile should include the following:

The Setting: Describe your observation site including:

• Center /School size

^{*}all limits are suggestions

- Type: (Public, subsidized, private)
- Funding Source (Parent Tuition, State funding, federal funding,)
- DCFS licensed for how many children? What ages? NAEYC Accredited?
- General socioeconomic status of families served

- How many children are in the classroom?
- What diversity is present within the environment in terms of race and gender?
- What is the Adult-Child ratio?
- How many are English Learners (ELs)? What are their home languages? What are the home countries of their families? What is/are their ethnic identities?
- Number of children in the classroom with IEPs/IFSPs
- Number of children who are ELs and have IEPs

The Learner

• Age, gender, English learner, IFSP/IEP, time in this setting,

Part III: Rationale & Selection of Assessments

In Part III. you will select one child, then select appropriate assessment tools and assess the child using 3 types of assessments, i.e., one assessment tool, 1 observation method, and 1 screening tool.

- Provide a rationale that describes why your selections best fit the learner you chose
- What did you learn about the child, the family and the social context?
- Discuss how each assessment can improve outcomes for the selected child
- Describe how families were/could be involved in the assessment and goal setting process
- What organizational strategies could you use to make sure the results are used to support the child's learning?

Write a report to this child's parents that explains the purpose of the assessments, the results, strengths and some next steps for learning and development. Include pictures, suggestions, an interesting format to make sure the content is parent friendly. (Suggested page length: a 1-2 pages)

Technology Option:

- weusine upurions

OR

Role-play a parent-teacher meeting or a meeting with your clinical teacher during which you explain the purpose of the assessments, the results, strengths and some next steps for learning and development.

To address Level 4 Competencies, add on:

Part IV: Project Post-Reflection

In Part IV of your Assessment, you will reflect on the data you collected by composing a summative analysis of your findings. Respond to each of the following:

Assessment Types:

- Compare and contrast the assessment types. How did they provide different data?
- What assessment types would you use to collect instructional data to inform future instruction? Describe how data generated from the instrument/method can be used to support children's development and learning based on state standards/guidelines.

Assessment Strategies:

- What strategies would you employ to use the information obtained from these tools to engage families? What strategies would you use, prior to instrument implementation, to ensure families are fully engaged in the observation, screening, and assessment process?
- In your future classroom, what strategies would you use to organize this data? How would you use this data to inform classroom instruction (in terms of maintenance, tracking, analysis, and integration into daily curriculum planning)?

Use of Assessments:

- How will you use assessment to differentiate instruction and intervention for children with special needs?
- Identify how information from families, coupled with data collected and research-based practices can be used to inform goals including IFSP/IEP goals, if appropriate, for young children.

Ethical and Practical Considerations:

- Consider the influence of bias in the assessment process. What impact, if any, did your own or contextual bias influence outcomes? What strategies can you use in the future to reduce impact, if applicable?
- Identify what external factors could influence the data collection process, and how these can be accounted for.
- Identify, for each of the instruments/methods selected, three to five factors you will need to keep in mind during implementation pertaining to local, state, and national guidelines (as applicable), for data collection.
- Identify, for each of the instruments/methods selected, and in accordance with state guidelines, two to three legal parameters that are important to keep in mind regarding identification and referral for children who may benefit from further assessment.

To address Level 5 Competencies, add on:

Part V: Program Evaluation

In Part V of your assessment, you will be investigating and describing an ECE program evaluation instrument and an authentic research-based practice (i.e., ITERS, ECERS, CLASS, Early Ed Essentials or other Parent Satisfaction Surveys). Based on the setting demographic profile as well as your insights in your post-reflection, write a 5-page* paper or prepare a short presentation for your staff meeting and respond to the following:

- Provide an overview of the program evaluation tool and authentic practice you have selected. What are the strengths and challenges of this tool in general?
 - What are the strengths and challenges of this tool in the setting you observed including culturally, linguistically and individually responsive perspectives?
 - o Who is involved in providing input; staff, families, administration, outside evaluators, others?
- How can utilization of this particular tool, or other classroom or program evaluation tools, support child development and learning? In other words, describe how knowledge of classroom/program performance can enhance your ability to meet instructional goals, and support the development and learning of each child within the classroom environment.
- Evaluate how essential legal and ethical data collection guidelines are addressed to ensure a quality program assessment
- Identify effective strategies to ensure assessment data is utilized in support of children's development of learning and program quality, including how often data would be collected and how it would be disaggregated. (Children with IFSP/IEPs, English learners/multilingual learners, age span, gender, race, etc.) and how it would be used for continuous improvement.

 Recommend strategies for sharing program evaluation results with families, administrators, colleagues and community partners/ stakeholders.
